

News Editors

July 23 2022

Single Phase Power Supply Issue at Porto Bello Facility in St. James

The National Water Commission is advising that there is single phase power supply issue at the Porto Bello facility in St. James. As a result, customers in Porto Bello are experiencing a disruption in the regular water supply

Full operation will resume as soon as the matter is resolved by the power service provider.

NWC regrets any inconvenience caused.

-END-