

Attention: News Editor

November 18, 2022

Strickland System Out of Operation

The Strickland pumping station, which supplies the Strickland community in Manchester with water, is out of operation. This is as a result of the single-phase electricity supply at the facility.

Water will be restored as soon as the issue is resolved. In the meantime, customers may call the NWC at 888-225-5692.

-30-